For the Church: that the Spirit will guide us in being a priestly people as we offer intercessory prayer for one another and for all the human family, we pray to the Lord.....

For the people of Detroit and the metropolitan region...that our marking of the 1967 civil uprising tragedy of fifty years ago would inspire us to learn all its lessons and to move forward in faith, we pray to the Lord.....

That our parish might create moments of human encounter, in order to recognize the “other” as a sister and brother, we pray to the Lord.....

For the gift of humility: that we may recognize our strengths, abilities and opportunities as gifts from God and be open to God’s invitations to serve each day, we pray to the Lord.....

That we, as people of faith, become the catalyst of change in human hearts bound by racism or bigotry, we pray to the Lord.....

For all immigrants and refugees: that their dignity may be respected and that they may find places safe from violence, gangs, and oppression, we pray to the Lord.....

For our brothers and sisters who are enduring bodily or spiritual chains: that they come to know the freedom that Christ has won for them, we pray to The Lord.....

For all the faithful departed: that they will be brought into the light of God’s dwelling so that they may gaze upon Him for all eternity, especially Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley, for whom this mass is offered, we pray to the Lord.....
