

General Intentions
January 21, 2018

For the Church: that we may faithfully announce the Good News through both word and deed and draw others to Christ by our lives and compassionate care for those in need, we pray to the Lord...

For the grace of courage: that we may persevere in following Christ day by day and be guided by the awareness that the reign of God is happening now, we pray to the Lord...

For Christian Unity: that God will heal the wounds and misunderstandings of the past and lead all the baptized to a new and more united witness to the Gospel and dedication to overcoming evil and injustice, we pray to the Lord...

For all who are overly preoccupied with possessions, achievements and success: that God will free us from clinging to titles and possessions so that our hearts may be open to receive God's gifts, we pray to the Lord...

For greater care for the earth and its resources: that God will guide us in being good stewards of the earth and protecting its resources for future generations, we pray to the Lord...

For all who are ill, particularly for those with the flu: that God will ease their pain and speedily restore them to health, we pray to the Lord...

For all who have died, especially Joyce Carson: that they may be welcomed by Christ to the eternal banquet of God's reign, we pray to the Lord...
