For the Church: that our truest selves, beloved daughters and sons of God, may be revealed more and more through our Lenten observances, we pray to the Lord...

For guidance on our Lenten journey: that as we participate in sacrifices during this Lenten season, we may recognize everything as a gift from God and be free to place our time, knowledge, energy and possessions at the service of God and our neighbor, we pray to the Lord...

For openness: that we may be attentive to God's voice and never let the blare of busyness, ambition nor consumerism drown out God's word to us, we pray to the Lord...

For all who gathered here today: that as we entrust ourselves to God more deeply this Lent, we may come to see the face of God more clearly, we pray to the Lord...

For the candidates who are preparing for reception into the church: that they may come to a deeper appreciation of their baptism into Christ's death and resurrection and find healing of their weaknesses in their celebration of the sacrament of penance, we pray to the Lord...

For all who are awaiting transformation of their lives, for those struggling with addictions, those who are imprisoned, and those bound by fear, pain, or anger: that God's love will free them and bring them to wholeness, we pray to the Lord...

For all who have died, particularly those killed in Parkland, Leonard Laske (Lass Key), and Sister Judy Ann Ruggierello (Ru-jill-e-rillo: that God will welcome them into the joy and peace of God's presence forever, we pray to the Lord.....
