For the Church: that we may be a source of living water for all who thirst for meaning and purpose in their lives.... Let us pray to the Lord.

For a greater openness to the Word of God: that we may take God's Word to heart; ponder it; and draw life from it Let us pray to the Lord.

For the courage to recognize and admit our sinfulness: that like the woman at the well, we may honestly face our life and ask for help in changing our direction Let us pray to the Lord.

For a deepening of hope: that through the Spirit who has been poured out upon us, we may face all challenges and obstacles with hope because God is with us Let us pray to the Lord.

For a deepening of prayer in our lives: that we may find ways to make room for God and spend time in prayer and reflection during these coming weeks Let us pray to the Lord.

For the sick, the distressed, and for all those who have asked for our prayers, and for those on our parish prayer list Let us pray to the Lord.

For our beloved dead, especially Evelyn Seyboldt (See-bolt) and John Smith: that they will benefit from our gifts of prayer this Lent Let us pray to the Lord.
