Second Sunday of Easter
Divine Mercy Sunday

For the Church: that through the gift of the Spirit, we recognize God's presence with us and profess with Thomas, "My Lord and My God".....we pray to the Lord

For the gift of peace: that Christ's gift may abide with us and sustain us through all the challenges of life.....we pray to the Lord

For the grace of reconciliation: that God will help us to turn from selfishness, forgive those who have injured us and be instruments of reconciliation in our society.....we pray to the Lord

For the grace of reconciliation: that God will help us to turn from selfishness, forgive those who have injured us and be instruments of reconciliation in our society.....we pray to the Lord

For an end to violence: that Christ's victory over death will turn hearts from violence and revenge and help us to respect the value and dignity of each human life.....we pray to the Lord

For all who are in need, particularly those who suffer violence, are recovering from natural disasters or lack resources for daily living: that God will give them strength, help them to trust, and move the hearts of many to assist them.....we pray to the Lord

For healing: that the Spirit will renew the gift of life in all who are sick, discouraged, struggling with addictions or weakness that comes with aging.....we pray to the Lord

For our deceased relatives, especially John Pilette and James Callahan, for the sick and for all those unable to join us today,we pray to the Lord
