17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

For the Church: that we may be open to God's generous love and be filled with gratitude for all the ways God has provided for us.....we pray to the Lord

For the grace to bear with one another: that God will give us patience and gentleness to bear with one another through our differences and limits so that we can help one another follow God's call.....we pray to the Lord

For the courage to serve others: that we may be open to opportunities to meet the needs of others and to generously respond to them even if our gifts or time seem too limited.....we pray to the Lord

For all who endure hunger each day, particularly orphans, refugees, and the marginalized: that God will open avenues for food to reach them and help our hearts to be more sensitive to their needs and more aware of our abundance.....we pray to the Lord

For all who hunger for freedom: that God will free those imprisoned unjustly, caught in human trafficking, or who live under oppression, heal their pain, and give them hope.....we pray to the Lord

For all who are suffering: that God will bring healing to the sick, assistance those recovering from floods, places of welcome for refugees, and peace to all experiencing violence.....we pray to the Lord

For all who have died, especially Patricia Sweeting and Gayle Koyton: that Christ will welcome them into the eternal rest and peace of God's presence.....we pray to the Lord
