For the Church: that we may recognize our dependence upon God for all things and let go of our attempts to control our own lives.....we pray to the Lord

That we may recognize our dependence upon God for all things and let go of our attempts to control our own lives.....we pray to the Lord

That we may recognize our dependence upon God for all things and let go of our attempts to control our own lives.....we pray to the Lord

For a greater sense of the common good: that we may recognize that God's gifts are for the benefit of the whole human family and never allow them to become idols that control us.....we pray to the Lord

For an end to discrimination: that God will help us recognize the dignity of each person and never judge them on appearance, status in life, nor cultural origin.....we pray to the Lord

For peace: that God will open new opportunities for dialogue between national leaders, increase their concern for the common good, and free them from the constraints of their egos.....we pray to the Lord

For all those who suffer with sickness - physically, emotionally, or spiritually - that Christ's healing will bring them comfort.....we pray to the Lord

For our relatives and friends who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith: that they may be welcomed into the radiant light of God's presence; we especially pray today for Paul Gibson and Dorothy Mae Bann.....we pray to the Lord
