For the Church: that we may be receptive to the gift of the Spirit and be transformed by the Spirit's work in us so that God's mercy, compassion and presence may be obvious to our eyes and felt in our hearts. . . . Let us pray to the Lord.

For the grace of discipleship: that we may never prefer anything, even our most treasured possessions, to our relationship with Christ. . . . Let us pray to the Lord.

For all who exercise leadership in the Church: that the Spirit will give them clear insight into the situations what have wounded believers and inspire their efforts in strengthening the faith and building unity in the body of Christ. . . . Let us pray to the Lord.

For all whose faith is weak: that they may grow closer God and not be led astray by the struggles and conflicts within and between faith communities. . . . Let us pray to the Lord.

For all victims of abuse: that God will heal their injuries and memories and help them find safety and protection from further harm. . . . Let us pray to the Lord.

For all who have lost homes or livelihoods due to floods, wildfires or other disasters: that God will keep them safe from further harm, ease the tensions in their relationships, and help to rebuild their lives. . . . Let us pray to the Lord.

For the sick in both mind and body: that they will experience the love and compassion of Christ in those who take care of their needs. . . . Let us pray to the Lord.

For all who have died, especially Georgine Ayoub: that they experience the everlasting joy of God's heavenly kingdom. . . . Let us pray to the Lord.
