Thoughts for Today's Readings "With a Prayer..."

Sunday Food for Your Soul

The Two Greatest Powers

A priest friend once told me how he was called one night to the hospital to pray with a lady who was terminally ill. The lady's condition had deteriorated rapidly, but she was still in good spirit and conscious when he arrived. After a few minutes of conversation with the lady; getting to know her and hearing her story, the lady said, "I am dying Father and I am afraid." The priest paused for a while listening to the Holy Spirit's guide on a response, and he was led to some scriptural passages. One scriptural passage was when Jesus told his disciples, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid" (Matt. 14:27). The second scriptural passage was from the prophecy of the prophet Isaiah, "Do not be afraid, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you..." (Isaiah 41:10).

The priest then asked the woman if it is possible that she would be afraid of her best friend who loves, supports, and wishes the best for her? The woman answered, no. The priest told her to take courage and not be afraid to take the next step forward, because her best friend is with her and He will accompany her through every journey.

From this story, there is present the interaction between human fear and its remedy of trusting love. The woman was afraid of losing her life and letting go of everything and everyone. But isn't this the drama going on in our lives on daily basis? Perhaps some might say the fear of losing their lives isn't active now, but the fear of losing something is often active; power, material possessions, status, job, health, loved ones, independence, freedom, etc. How do we respond to this fear of loss? Some people double down on their efforts to protect what they have, whether it be their freedoms, assets, or even their very lives. Some others live in denial of their fears. Yet we know deep down, sooner or later, that we will have to let go of everything and surrender to the mystery of love that is infinitely greater than all our fears. As Christians, we believe that this ever-present mystery of love that surrounds us is our God who knows us and wants us to be united with him. Therefore, it is only with the perfect love of the risen Lord that fear can be overcome.

STEWARDSHIP MINUTEPersistent Stewardship

"...proclaim the word, be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient..."

2 TIMOTHY 4:2

It is not always convenient to be a good Steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He never said that we would have an easy life. Rather, He called us to be faithful!

An Advisory from The Archdiocese of Detroit Department of Communications

Regarding The Society of Our Lady, Queen of all Saints

Each of us in the Catholic faith community has a responsibility to reduce error, avoid schism, and promote ecclesiastical communion. To that end, the Archdiocese of Detroit shares the following information about a group operating in Southfield and elsewhere called “The Society of Our Lady, Queen of all Saints,” which presents itself as “a group of Catholic clergy offering the traditional sacraments.”

As of August 2025, the group was renting space in The Church of the Redeemer, an Episcopal church in Southfield. Previously, they occupied space in Taylor at the Little Rose Chapel Shrine, which has no affiliation with the Archdiocese of Detroit. An individual identifying himself as clergy from The Society of Our Lady, Queen of all Saints has visited Archdiocesan parishes in the area.

In the interest of truth and to avoid confusion among the faithful, we must clarify that, as best we are able to tell, The Society of Our Lady, Queen of all Saints is not an organization in ecclesiastical communion with the Catholic Church. Catholics are advised to avoid association with this group.

Thank you for your attention to this important matter. Let us pray that God will bring all Christian communities into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church, so that we may all be one. (cf. John 17:21)

Our 6-Week Series on All Souls Day

As All Souls Day approaches, join us in a special 6-week article series in our Parish Bulletin. Each week, we'll explore the meaning of All Souls Day, share parish traditions, and offer prayers to remember our loved ones. Stay tuned for reflections and insights to deepen your observance of this sacred time.

WEEK 1: UNDERSTANDING ALL SOULS DAY

As we approach the solemn feast of All Souls Day on November 2nd, we are reminded of the significance of this day within the Church's liturgical calendar. All Souls Day, which follows the celebration of All Saints Day, is dedicated to praying for the souls of all the faithful departed. It is a time for us to reflect on the mysteries of death and resurrection, grounded in our hope in Christ. This day invites us to remember that while death is a reality we all face, it is not the end but rather a transition to eternal life with God.

The observance of All Souls Day traces its roots back to early Christian tradition, where the faithful would gather to commemorate the deceased through prayers, intercessions, and the celebration of the Eucharist. This practice highlights the Church's belief in the communion of saints—a spiritual bond that unites the living and the dead in Christ. The Church teaches that the souls of the faithful departed may undergo purification in Purgatory before they enter into the fullness of Heaven. Our prayers, Mass offerings, and acts of devotion can aid them on their journey, helping to speed their transition into eternal peace.

As we prepare for this sacred observance, we are called to remember and honor our departed loved ones. Lighting candles, attending Mass, and offering prayers for their souls are traditional ways to express our love and concern for those who have gone before us. However, All Souls Day also reminds us to pray for all souls in need of God's mercy, particularly those who have no one to pray for them. In doing so, we extend our compassion beyond our immediate circle, participating in a powerful act of love and solidarity.

Through our prayers and acts of charity, we affirm our belief in the communion of saints and our hope in the resurrection. This All Souls Day, let us draw closer to God, trusting in His infinite mercy as we remember the souls of the departed and look forward to the promise of eternal life in Christ.

WEEK 2: PRAYING FOR THE DEPARTED

All Souls Day invites us to engage in one of the spiritual works of mercy: praying for the souls of the faithful departed. This day serves as a reminder of our profound connection with those who have passed from this life and the important role that our prayers, Mass intentions, and acts of devotion can play in their spiritual journey. These prayers are powerful expressions of love and compassion, assisting souls in their purification and bringing them closer to full union with God in Heaven.

By offering prayers for the deceased, we actively participate in the Church's mission of intercession and redemption. The Church teaches that while souls in Purgatory are assured of their salvation, they still undergo a process of purification before entering the fullness of Heaven. Our prayers, Mass offerings, and acts of charity can help alleviate their sufferings and speed their journey toward eternal rest. This act of intercession is not just a tradition, but a sacred duty, an opportunity to show our love for those who have gone before us and to entrust them to the infinite mercy of God.

The Church encourages us to commemorate All Souls Day by visiting cemeteries, attending Mass, and engaging in other devotional practices such as lighting candles and reciting the Rosary. These acts of remembrance allow us to express our faith in the communion of saints—a belief that the living and the dead remain united in Christ. In doing so, we take comfort in the knowledge that our prayers have the potential to ease the sufferings of souls in Purgatory and bring them closer to the eternal joy of Heaven.

As we pray for the faithful departed, may our intercessions be a source of hope, not only for those who have passed, but also for those who mourn. Through our prayers and acts of charity, we find comfort in knowing that we are helping to bring souls into the loving presence of God.

WEEK 3: THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

On All Souls Day, we celebrate the profound mystery of the communion of saints—a spiritual bond that unites the faithful on earth, those in Heaven, and the souls in Purgatory. This doctrine emphasizes that the Church is not divided by death but remains a unified body, where all its members, both living and deceased, are interconnected through Christ. The communion of saints reassures us that we are never alone in our faith journey, but part of a vast spiritual community that spans both time and space. The communion of saints is a powerful reminder that death does not sever our relationships with our loved ones who have passed away. Rather, through Christ, those bonds are deepened and transformed. We remain united with them, particularly through prayer. The Church teaches that our prayers for the souls in Purgatory have the capacity to assist them in their purification process, helping them draw nearer to the fullness of God's presence in Heaven. In turn, the souls in Purgatory can pray for us, creating a network of spiritual support that transcends earthly boundaries. This mutual intercession reinforces the solidarity of the Church across the realms of life, death, and eternity.

As we commemorate All Souls Day, we are invited to reflect on this beautiful mystery of unity. It is a time to remember our departed loved ones, to offer prayers and Masses for the repose of their souls, and to take comfort in the knowledge that they, too, continue to intercede for us. In this way, the communion of saints becomes a source of both consolation and strength, reminding us that the love we share with those who have gone before us endures beyond the grave.

All Souls Day also invites us to affirm our hope in the resurrection of the dead. Just as Christ was raised, we too are promised new life in Him. As we pray for the faithful departed, may we be strengthened in our faith, knowing that we remain forever connected with all believers, and that one day, we too will be united with them in the joy of eternal life.

Parish Nurse New and Notes

October: Breast Cancer Awareness Month

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month—a time when we come together to support those affected by breast cancer, raise awareness about the importance of early detection, and encourage education and prevention within our community.

Breast cancer remains one of the most common cancers among women worldwide. While it is less common, men can also be diagnosed with breast cancer. The good news is that early detection significantly increases the chances of successful treatment. Regular screenings, including mammograms, clinical breast exams, and self-exams, are vital tools in catching cancer early.

As a faith community, we are called to care for one another—body, mind, and spirit. This month, let us commit to:

- Encouraging routine screenings – Talk to your doctor about when to begin mammograms based on your personal and family history.
- Sharing knowledge – Educate others on the signs and symptoms of breast cancer.
- Offering support – Reach out to those undergoing treatment or recovery with compassion, prayer, and practical help.
- Honoring survivors and remembering those lost – Keep them in your prayers and hearts.

Let's wear pink not just in solidarity, but as a sign of our dedication to health, healing, and hope.

Blessings and good health

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes.
