Sunday Food for Your Soul

Welcome Back, St. Charles Alumni!

We are so happy to welcome you home to St. Charles! Thank you for joining us for Mass and for the fellowship that follows. Your presence today reminds us of the deep roots of faith, friendship, and community that have always made our parish family so special.

We give thanks to God for bringing you back to this sacred place — a church filled with memories of baptisms, confirmations, first communions, weddings, and so many other milestones of grace. You are part of the living history of St. Charles, and your faith continues to strengthen the foundation on which we build today.

Since Pentecost, the true Church has been the People of God, and through every generation, those people have built and cared for houses of worship in honor of the Living God. Our parishioners today continue that mission with generous hearts, preserving and enhancing the beauty of this church where so many of us first encountered Christ in the Sacraments. In the past year, we've made many improvements, not only to the building itself but also to the life of the parish — in prayer, service, and outreach.

We celebrate together as one family in faith — past, present, and future — united by the Holy Spirit and guided by the same love that first called us to this parish. As we continue to worship, serve, and grow together, we invite you to visit often, to pray with us, and to remain an active part of our St. Charles family.

We do this every week — fifty-two Sundays a year — because this is our spiritual home. Please come back often. You will always have a place here at St. Charles.

STEWARDSHIP MINUTE

Humble Stewardship

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." LUKE 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember Stewardship. All that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

Prayer for Our Faithful Departed

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Like the seed buried in the ground, you have produced the harvest of eternal life for us; make us always dead to sin and alive to God.

Amen.

Our 6-Week Series on All Souls Day

As All Souls Day approaches, join us in a special 6-week article series in our Parish Bulletin. Each week, we'll explore the meaning of All Souls Day, share parish traditions, and offer prayers to remember our loved ones. Stay tuned for reflections and insights to deepen your observance of this sacred time.

WEEK 6: HOPE IN THE RESURRECTION

As we conclude our reflections on All Souls Day, we are reminded of the profound hope we hold in the resurrection and the promise of eternal life. This sacred day invites us to contemplate the mystery of death not in isolation, but in the light of Christ's victory over sin and death. It is through Christ's death and resurrection that we are assured that death is not the final word, but a passage to new life in the presence of God.

Our faith in the resurrection gives us the confidence to face death with hope rather than despair. Though death separates us from our loved ones in this life, we trust in God's mercy, believing that those who have died in Christ are held in His loving embrace. All Souls Day offers us a moment to entrust the souls of our departed loved ones to God's infinite compassion. In doing so, we remember that they are part of the communion of saints, united with us in a spiritual bond that transcends the boundaries of time and space.

This day of remembrance also encourages us to reflect on our own mortality, but with the comfort of knowing that death is not the end. It is a transition to a fuller life in God's presence, where we will be reunited with those who have gone before us. The hope of the resurrection sustains us through the pain of loss and grief, offering the assurance that, through Christ, we will one day share in the joy of the heavenly banquet.

As we move forward from the celebration of All Souls Day, let us take solace in this hope. Our faith not only strengthens us during times of sorrow but also inspires us to live each day in joyful anticipation of eternal life. May the belief in the resurrection shape our lives, as we look forward to the day when we, too, will share in the fullness of life with God and all the saints. In the meantime, let us live with hearts full of hope, trusting in the promise of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

Black Catholic History Month
November 2025

What is Black Catholic History Month and Reasons We Celebrate

Black Catholic History Month was established in 1990 through the advocacy of the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus. During the same year, the first celebration of Black Catholic History Month began in November in various cities in the United States with the celebration of St. Martin de Porres' Feast Day. On November 3rd of that year, a liturgy celebrated the 150th anniversary of St. Martin's transition to eternal life.

In the world today there are more than 200 million people of African descent in the Roman Catholic Church.

The reason for the selection of November to celebrate Black Catholic History is the number of important dates within this month:

- Nov. 1 – All Saints Day – an opportunity to review the lives of saints of African descent living in the first 300 years of Church history;
- Nov. 2 – All Souls Day – a time to remember the Africans lost in cruel treatment in the Middle passage crossing the Atlantic Ocean;
- Nov. 3 – Feast of St. Martin de Porres, the only saint of African descent in this hemisphere;
- Nov. 20 – the death of Zumbi Palmares in Brazil, the South American founder of a free state for Blacks.

Black Catholic History Month is a time for us to celebrate the contributions of Black Catholics to the Roman Catholic tradition.

Prayer for Black History Month

Spirit of Abundance, God of Grace, Mother of Hope,
We pause now to remember those stories that are all around us,
But so often passed over,
Those stories that when told are shared because
Of what someone is, not who they are.
This month in our nation's character
Is Black History month.
Help us to realize that Black history is
All our histories.
May the day come when these stories
Are so wildly taught that no month need
Be separately divided.
We know this day will not come until we as a people
Make different choices.
We pray now for those new choices.
May we come to see a day where the prison system
Becomes redemptive, not punitive.
A day where the legal system learns to focus more squarely on the facts,
And the not colors of our skin.
A day where our schools are as well funded, as the needs demand.
May our role models be allowed to excel when they thrive,
And not be taken down for their rich heritage.
We know this will require a shift in power.
And this can be scary for some.
Give those full of fear - hope.
May we come to know grace,
So that our hearts will not be hardened to the pain around us.
There are so many beautiful stories needing to be told.
And we need to get the chance to hear them.
Widen our vision so that the history that is shared this month,
And every month,
Come to be known as our history too.
We are most human when we see the humanity in others.

Parish Nurse Notes and Notes

November is National Diabetes Month

November is National Diabetes Month, a time to raise awareness about diabetes and the importance of prevention, early detection, and healthy living. Diabetes affects millions of Americans, and many more are at risk of developing Type 2 diabetes due to lifestyle factors such as diet, physical inactivity, and excess weight.

This year's focus is on building healthy habits for lasting change. Even small steps can make a big difference! Try to include more fruits, vegetables, and whole grains in your meals, aim for at least 30 minutes of physical activity most days, and schedule regular checkups with your healthcare provider. Monitoring blood sugar levels and maintaining a healthy weight are key to preventing complications and promoting overall well-being.

If you or someone you love is living with diabetes, remember—you're not alone. Support from family, friends, and faith communities can make managing this condition easier and more hopeful.

Let's use this month to renew our commitment for caring for our bodies as God's gift—through awareness, education, and compassion.

“Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit?”
– 1 Corinthians 6:19

We are grateful to Corewell Health community dept and Danyielle McGuire-Nelson for leading our Parish in the Diabetes Prevention Program being held here at St Charles on Sundays after church. We have a core group of 15 people in the class. I am very proud of everyone attending and know we will learn a lot about preventing diabetes.

For those interested in more resources re diabetes and other health programs, please let me know and I can give you that info. My number is 313-204-3223.

God bless Mary Catherine Wright RN

In light of the upcoming SNAP benefits being paused November 1st, I feel heavily inclined to share just a few resources for the Downriver Michigan/Metro Detroit area - ! hoping this might help any families in need near me !

♀ NW Detroit Blessing Boxes

Located: 11640 W Parkway St. Redford, MI 48239

Hours Vary, check the FB page to ensure they are open & operating

♀ Elmwood Blessing Box

Located: 27543 Joy Rd, Unit A. Westland, MI 48150

Hours Vary, check the FB page to ensure they are open & operating

♀ Cruella Doughville Delano Blessing Box

Located: 11132 Delano St. Romulus, MI 48174

Hours Vary, check the FB page to ensure they are open & operating

♀ Gleaners Community Food Bank

Monthly, Gleaners hosts drive-up food distributions, which are free and open to the public. These are at different locations. Anyone in need of food is encouraged to attend and will receive over 35 pounds of nutritious groceries, like milk, fresh fruit, vegetables, lean protein, and other shelf-stable items while supplies last.

Please check PantryNet, Facebook, or Instagram for more information/cancellations.

♀ Forgotten Harvest Food Pantry

Throughout the month, Forgotten Harvest operates mobile pantries throughout metro Detroit.

They have set locations depending on the day, so go to their website to find out where they will be & confirm their operating hours -> <https://www.forgottenharvest.org/find-food/>

♀ Fish & Loaves Pantry

Fish & Loaves hosts a "Saturday Fresh Market" with the goal of providing fresh produce to those in need throughout the community. This program is held on Saturday (except the 3rd Saturday of the month) from 9am-12pm.

Individuals or families in need, regardless of residency or income, are able to visit the drive-thru and receive 20-25 pounds of fresh produce and dairy.

Visit their website for more information: <https://www.flcfp.org/freshmarket.html>

These are just a few places I have found, simply hoping to reach the right people who may need the help ♥

Lastly, if you find yourself with the ability to donate to these places PLEASE DO 🙏

Even a small donation can make the biggest difference to supporting those in need, especially as we enter these winter & holiday months

♥ Sending all the love & prayers to those families affected ♥

We are all in this together 🌍

With Blessings to You,

Deacon Joseph

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes.
