We are blessed to have another Community Meals today! Patty Gillis and Friends have prepared a delicious meal, and everyone is invited to the table after mass. Please see Georgia Kingsley or Suzan Anderson if you are interested in sponsoring a meal. Please consider getting a group together to sponsor a meal and contact Georgia Kingsley.

Please be sure to stop by the back table today to sign up to help with items or labor for the annual festival. The festival will be here on Sunday, July 23. There are flyers on the table for you to share the information on the back table.

The Saturday night before our annual festival, we will have a live music concert on the front steps of the church! A food truck will be here between 5pm and 8pm serving casual food. The concert will be from 6pm to 8pm. Our special musicians for the concert will be Joshua Nance, the son of Tommy Nance and his group all the way from Las Vegas. The group will play a wide variety of music, including, R & B, Rock, and a little Jazz. Bring a chair and join the fun! Flyers are on the back table.

For those who signed up and those still interested in learning how to potentially save the life of someone, please stay today for the Stop the Bleed training today at 2pm. This is part of the Detroit Police Shield program. The training session will be upstairs from 2pm to about 3 or 3:30pm.

It has been many years since our tarrazzo floor has been stripped and re waxed. The floor has begun to show wear and needs to be stripped and re waxed. We are requesting help from our parishioners in completing this work. On Saturday, July 15, 2023 if you are available to help with this task, we ask you to please join the group at 9:30am in the church. We will also need people to clean during the processes of stripping and re waxing. Lunch will be provided to the workers. If you are willing to assist with the project, please call 313-331-0253 or email the rectory to add your name to the list. Even if you can't stay for the entire time, any amount of time you can give will be greatly appreciated!

It is CSA time and we are asking for everyone’s support to meet our goal of $31,648.00. If you have given already, thank you! If you haven’t made your pledge yet, we ask that you prayerfully consider making it soon. If you didn’t receive a pledge card in the mail from the Archdiocese, there are blank cards and envelopes on the back table. If you are dropping a check in the basket, please make your check payable to CSA and put St. Charles 226 in the memo line. Thanks everyone for your support!
