As shepherd of Detroit, he loved and guided us.
As teacher, he educated and engaged us to be thinking Catholics.
As Council Father, he invited and inspired us to grow
a vibrant Vatican II Church.

As host of the first national Call to Action in 1976, he welcomed and listened to the People of God on behalf of the U.S. Bishops.

*W*e come together this evening to thank God for his wisdom, vision, courage, integrity, leadership and love
and to celebrate our beloved community of faith.
