Mass General Intentions
October 25, 2026

For the Universal Church: that the Church throughout the world may faithfully proclaim the Gospel, guide souls to Christ, and be a visible sign of hope and unity for all people…..we pray to the Lord

For the Archdiocese of Detroit: That the Holy Spirit may guide Archbishop Weisenburger, our clergy, and all the faithful of the Archdiocese as we continue through Phase Two of the missionary restructuring process, granting wisdom, courage, and trust in God's plan…..we pray to the Lord

For Our Parish Family: That our parish community may embrace the opportunities and challenges of Phase Two with faith, openness, and a renewed commitment to discipleship, strengthening our mission to serve Christ and one another…..we pray to the Lord

For the Poor and Those in Need: That those who struggle with poverty, hunger, homelessness, loneliness, or despair may find compassionate assistance, human dignity, and the loving presence of Christ through the generosity of others…..we pray to the Lord

For the Sick: That all who are ill in body, mind, or spirit, especially those suffering from chronic illness, anxiety, or loneliness, may experience God's healing grace, comfort, and peace…..we pray to the Lord

For Our Beloved Dead: That our departed loved ones and all the faithful departed, especially Toufie Ayub, Alice Ayoub, and Angela McDonald, that they all may be welcomed into the eternal joy of God's kingdom, and that those who mourn their loss may be strengthened by the hope of the Resurrection…..we pray to the Lord
