Sunday, Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, January 14th 11:30 AM Mass livestreamed, Presider and Preacher: Fr. David

Today is the day we bless the church and bless our homes. The church will be blessed at the end of Mass. We pray that God send the good angels to bring the truth that comes from God. We also pray that God drives from our homes all spirits of confusion, harm and bitterness, so that we can live in the peace of Christ. A priest's blessing is always a good thing because of the graces God gives to the priests for the Church. By our baptism, we can all give blessings to each other, our children, and our homes. As James 4:2 reminds us, “you don't receive because you don't ask.” Let's be asking for all the blessings we can get.

Thanks to everyone who set up the church so that it looks so beautiful, those who sang, played, prayed, ushered, read, served at the altar and came to praise the living God.

Talk at the seminary. On Friday evening, I'll be giving a talk at the seminary on life in the Spirit in parish life at 6:30 PM. Parishioners are welcome to join the seminarians for the talk, for praise and worship and the ministry of prayer teams.

Family of Parishes As we begin this new year of Our Lord, 2024, we pray for and await the assignment of at least one new priest for our family of parishes. The past year was a year of many transitions and changes – let's make sure that we are giving to Jesus all of those changes so that we can live healed and free in this new year of grace.

*With a prayer,
Father Dan*

If you are looking to attend Mass when there isn't one planned for the Family of Parishes or there is a limited schedule, the chapel at St. Bonaventure Capuchin Monastery on Mt. Elliott happily welcomes everyone for their 7:30am daily mass.

New clarification from Pope Francis in Rome. This past week, Pope Francis approved a notice from one of the Vatican Offices saying that blessings by priests and deacons can be given to couples who are not married and to gay couples. What does this mean? It means that just as the Church's Book of Blessings has blessings for people in many situations in life, there are now these new blessings. The notice also clarifies that these new blessings are not a kind of marriage, or a kind of sacrament of Matrimony; they are blessings. Commentators from one side of the fence are confident that this approval is the beginning of other welcome changes. Commentators from the other side of the church fence are worried that this change will lead to changes in interpreting what the New Testament teaches. People can interpret what they want, but what the Holy Father has said and written is that he wants everyone to know that God loves them and calls each and every one to sacrificial holiness.

STEWARDSHIP MINUTE: Stewards Worship

"They fell down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." - MATTHEW 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts.

We, too, as Christian Stewards, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!

H O L Y M A S S

FOR JUSTICE AND PEACE

IN GRATITUDE FOR THE LIFE, WORK, AND EXAMPLE OF REVEREND DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

As a champion of civil rights, the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s dreams were much aligned with many of our Catholic teachings: the life and dignity of all people; care for the poor and vulnerable; solidarity of our one human family, regardless of race, ethnicity, religious, or economic differences; fair wages and treatment in civic matters; peace, equality, and justice among all; and discipleship of Christ. Please join us in praying for continued progress on the work begun by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. to bring peace to our country and the world.

Presider and Homilist:
Bishop Gerard Battersby

ST. CHARLES WOMEN'S RETREAT WEEKEND IS FEB 16-18, 2024.

Our annual women's retreat is at Saint Paul of the Cross Passionist Retreat Center on the weekend of February 16-18, 2024. The retreat begins with dinner on Friday evening and ends on Sunday morning after breakfast and Mass. The retreat center is on the westside of Detroit, and transportation is available to get you there and back home---call Patty or Jessica for details--- phone numbers below.

The retreat is a special time to rest in God, laugh (and maybe cry), eat delicious food, share great conversations, and come home more hopeful and peaceful. Each woman has her own room and bathroom—all linens provided.

Our theme this year is "Dancing with God". God invites us to the dance floor of prayer, trust, and life. As we hear anew God's invitation, we may notice some hesitancy, fear or concern of doing it wrong or not feeling comfortable... and then we remember it is in God that we live and breathe and have our being... and the dance begins.

"I will dance Lord, if you lead me..." -Mechtild of Magdeburg, 13th Century mystic

The suggested donation is $225.00, and retreatants are asked to give whatever they can afford to cover the costs---please do not let finances keep you away. To save your place, please call Patty Gillis at 313.399.8320 or Jessica Edwards at 313.917.0129, or call Christine at the Retreat Center at 313-535-9563. St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes.

Archbishop Vigneron's statement on Pope Francis' Global Rules for Reporting Abuse

A new papal law requiring priests and religious to report sexual abuse and misconduct provides "clear directives for universal accountability in response to the horrors of clergy sexual abuse," Archbishop Vigneron has told Detroit Catholic. The law provides whistleblower protections for anyone making a report and requires all dioceses to have a system in place to receive the claims confidentially. And it outlines internal procedures for conducting preliminary investigations when the accused is a bishop, cardinal or religious superior. "I am deeply sorry to all those who have been injured and are enduring a lifetime of physical, emotional and spiritual suffering because of perverse actions by those in authority," the archbishop said. "No one is above civil law, and importantly, no one is above God's law." Pope Francis announced the new norms. The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others directly to law enforcement – no matter when the abuse occurred. The Michigan Attorney General's Office has established a toll-free reporting hotline at (844- 324-3374, Monday through Friday, 8 am to 5pm. aginvestigations@michigan.gov). Individuals also may contact their local police department. For complaints involving priests, deacons, religious, or laity, individuals are welcomed to contact the Archdiocese of Detroit's Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or vac@aod.org.
