"The Lord Be With You."

As we celebrate the life of Martin Luther King Jr as well as the week of Prayer for Christian Unity, we are called to come together as Christians and as brothers and sisters to work for justice in our world. May these quotes from Dr. King be a meditation for us as we see our world so separated at this moment. He calls us to be the change.

"With this faith, we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair, a stone of hope. With this faith, we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood (sisterhood). With this faith, we will be able to work together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day."

"An individual has not started living until he (she) can rise above the narrow confines of their individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of humanity."

"Never, never be afraid to do what is right, especially if the well-being of a person or animal is at stake. Society's punishments are small compared to the wounds we inflict on our soul when we look the other way."

"Those who passively accept evil are as much involved in it as those who help perpetrate it. Those who accept evil without protesting against it are really cooperating with it."

"The time is always right to do the right thing."

I came to the conclusion that there is an existential moment in your life when you decide to speak for yourself. Nobody else can speak for you."

"I have decided to stick with love. Hate is too heavy a burden to carry."

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes again in glory.

ST. CHARLES WOMEN'S RETREAT WEEKEND IS FEB 8-10, 2019

Our annual women's retreat is at Saint Paul of the Cross Passionist Retreat Center on the weekend of February 8-10, 2019. The retreat begins with dinner on Friday evening and ends on Sunday morning after breakfast and Mass. The retreat center is on the westside of Detroit, and carpools will be available to get you there and back home.

We rest, laugh, eat delicious food, share great conversations, and come home more hopeful and peaceful. Each woman has her own room and bathroom. Our theme this year is "Rejoice in the Lord Always".

Participants are asked to donate whatever they can afford to cover the expenses of this wonderful experience of spiritual and physical rest and renewal.

Please do not let finances keep you away. Call Patty Gillis at 313.399.8320 or Jessica Edwards at 313.917.0129 to reserve your space or call the Retreat Center at 313-286-2801. You may also register online at www.stpaulretreat.org.

CSA Minute: Ministry of Consolation

A two-day training for those who minister to the bereaved will be held at Sacred Heart Major Seminary later this month. The Ministry of Consolation Training Course will explore ways for parishes to begin a Ministry of Consolation or enhance present bereavement ministry programs.

Your CSA gifts allow the archdiocesan Office for Marriage, Family and Pro Life to offer this training with Catholic Funeral and Cemetery Services at a nominal cost. The training topics to be covered include personal death awareness, the Order of Christian Funerals, communication and listening in grief ministry, and facilitating bereavement support groups.

For more information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, please go to aod.org.

Making a Report of Sexual Abuse

To inform the Archdiocese of Detroit regarding the sexual abuse of minors by priests, deacons and other Church personnel and/or to speak to the Victim Assistance Coordinator contact: (866) 343-8055. A caller will be requested to provide his or her name and telephone number. All calls regarding complaints of sexual abuse will be returned in a timely manner. This toll-free number has been established as part of an effort by the Detroit archdiocese to protect children, young people and other vulnerable people in our schools, parishes and ministries. This line is for reporting suspected sexual misconduct or child abuse within archdiocesan institutions and ministries only. Persons with such complaints are also encouraged to directly contact law enforcement authorities. The Archdiocese of Detroit stands with the brave survivors who seek to bring the crime of child sexual abuse by clergy and other Church representatives into the light, where those who sinned are confronted and those who were harmed can find healing. To those harmed by the actions and inaction of Church leaders: It is inexcusable, and we are sorry. In an effort to consolidate our resources and respond to the faithful's questions about clergy sexual abuse, the Archdiocese of Detroit has created a new "mini" website at protect.aod.org. This site highlights information about reporting abuse, victim assistance, investigations, training for clergy and lay employees and volunteers, and provides additional resources, including messages from Archbishop Vigneron. Our goal is to make this important information – already available on aod.org – more visible, transparent and clear.
