Sunday Food for Your Soul – Repeat of last weeks as this information is very important!

The AOD challenge to the families of parishes

In a diocesan planning meeting on February 15, 2025, the Archdiocese of Detroit presented that they face substantial challenges and are having difficulty in determining how best to deal with them. These include 40% fewer Catholics going to church than twenty (?) years ago, the prospect of 90 fewer active diocesan priests in the next ten years, many aging and deteriorating facilities and 40 parishes that are in financial crisis (St Charles Borromeo is not one of those parishes).

To deal with this there will need to be a substantial reduction in the amount of real estate that needs to be maintained and a merging of services. This could mean as many as 60 fewer parishes in the Archdiocese within the next five to ten years. We in the city have felt the brunt of close/merge decisions in the past. This next round will most heavily affect the first ring suburbs, but we are fooling ourselves if we think that it will not also affect city parishes.

In this environment, we in the Lower Eastside family of parishes need to seriously look at our strengths and weaknesses to come up with a plan that can determine how we can grow our parishes and position ourselves for a bright future of Apostolic Mission. We need to figure out how we can bring new neighborhood residents and the next generation of Detroiters into our congregations. We have the reality that two of our three priests in-solidum are in their upper 70s, so how do we pass on ministries to lay staff and parish members? How do we pay for expanded staffing; how do we grow parish income? Are our present buildings a resource or liability in doing worship, education, and services? These are difficult and emotionally charged questions, but we must face them with courage and faith. Between the five parishes we have substantial resources. However, none of us are, at this point, big and wealthy enough to meet the metrics that the archdiocese is considering. With insightful planning we can pull this off, but we will be forced to prove that these are realistic plans and not just wishful thinking.

The diocese has helped us with a three year grant to bring three family level directors to help us with this process of planning and implementation for this New Apostolic Age. Two of them are starting this week. Donald Snider will be our Mission Support Director and will help us evaluate, align and maintain our resources for the mission of bringing the Gospel to our communities. Ed Cotton IV will be our Director of Engagement and Family Ministry and will help equip parishioners of all ages for the mission of bringing the power of the Gospel to our families, parishes, schools and neighborhoods. We will be soon adding a director of Discipleship Formation who will help us develop dynamic formation for our members, both youth and adults, to help us encounter and grow in the love of Christ that we may be empowered to witness to the power of that love to everyone we encounter on our journey.

We need to lean on the Lord and step out in faith as we embark on this new adventure together. Our God is the God of possibilities. If we trust in Him and work together in Faith, Hope and Love, the Holy Spirit will guide us to a bright future. Will it be easy? No. Will there be challenges? Yes. However, this is no different than the days of the early church. God blessed the church then. He blesses the church now and he will bless us going forward.

Peace and Love in Christ,
Fr. Richard, Fr. David and Fr. Chris

Sunday Community Dinners... As one of our most important ministries to our members and neighbors, we have been blessed. We are in need of more. If you and your group would like to sponsor a meal, please contact Georgia Kingsley via the rectory. Today, March 16, 2025: Torya and Eduardo; March 23, 2025: Sponsor Needed; March 30, 2025: Strangers No Longer; April 6, 2025: Detroit Black Catholic Ministry; April 13, 2025: Secular Franciscans of St. Clare; April 20, 2025: Easter Sunday – No Meal; April 27, 2025: St. Bonaventure Secular Franciscans.

Nativity Pantry News: We are so grateful for your continued support of the pantry. This week, we need Cereal, cornbread, and Easter Candy. We have had many requests for these items so we hope you will help us.

If you would like to support the pantry without shopping, a check made out to Gleaners Food Bank would be greatly appreciated. Please include Nativity Pantry 1116 in the memo line. Mail checks to Nativity and we will take them to Gleaners to be sure they are properly credited to our account. Many thanks for your generosity!

Religious Education: Stations of the Cross will be led next Sunday (03/23/25) following mass with our children in Religious Education. Everyone is invited to join us.

On Sunday March 30th following mass our catechetical team will present a tour of the church for our families and all those who are interested. This is a great opportunity to take a lenten journey while learning the symbols of the church.

Our students in the religious education program need your help with completing their goal of making 40 Fleece Blankets by Palm Sunday. The blankets will be given to different outreach programs as part of our prayer, fasting and alms. To learn how you can help see Joni Scott or Kim Spaniola.

Parish Financial News

The Parish Finance Council met 1/29/25 to review our year to date (YTD) progress and to begin planning for our next fiscal budget. We anticipated that at the half way point in the fiscal year of 7/1/24 - 12/31/25, our expenses would exceed our income by about $34,000. While we have spent less than planned, our collection money is short of what we anticipated, leaving us with a $40,000 deficit. The council will continue to work with the parish to reduce the deficit, looking for ways to increase money coming in, while keeping a sharp focus on expenses.

There are several areas of good news! The deficit is significantly smaller than last year's and it appears that we will continue to improve. We have solid savings to cushion the shortfall while we work to balance the budget. Also, thanks to generous donors, we have been able to complete several significant long-term improvements over the last 18 months, including a new boiler, gutter replacements and upgrades and upcoming (Spring) tuck pointing work!

Parish Nurse News and Notes

March is Colorectal Health Awareness Month

March is recognized as Colorectal Health Awareness Month, a time to highlight the importance of preventing, detecting, and treating colorectal cancer. Colorectal cancer is one of the most common cancers, but it is also one of the most preventable through regular screenings and a healthy lifestyle. Doctors recommend that adults 50 and older (or younger for those with risk factors) get screened with tests like colonoscopy. Symptoms to watch for include persistent changes in bowel habits, blood in the stool, and unexplained weight loss. A high-fiber diet, regular exercise, and avoiding smoking and excessive alcohol can reduce the risk of colorectal cancer. This month, take action for your health and encourage others to get screened! Don't forget that we are having blood pressure screening today after mass in the Parish Hall .. We will also be having diabetes screening today for anyone that is interested. It will be short and sweet. This screening will be near the BP table and will be facilitated by the community dept at Corewell Health (previously was Oakwood ,then Beaumont) .Corewell is helping our Parish Nurse Program by offering many healthy programs, like diabetes prevention , hypertension classes ect in the future.

Peace and God bless

Grateful Stewardship

"I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession."
- GENESIS 15:7

Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses, and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show your gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a Stewards sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?

PLEASE SIGN A POSTCARD TO POPE FRANCIS, ASKING HIM TO CANONIZE THE SAINTLY SIX (Postcards will be on the tables at the Community Meal on March 2nd, and on the table in the back of church after that.)

The Saintly Six are six holy Americans of African descent, who led exemplary lives:

Pierre Toussaint (1766-1853) was brought from Haiti to the United States by the White French couple who enslaved him. Freed in 1807, he became a successful hair stylist and redeemed both his sister and future wife from slavery. Toussaint financially supported several charitable causes, helped to finance the construction of Old St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City, and is considered a founder of Catholic Charities of New York.

Mother Henriette Delille, SSF (Sisters of the Holy Family), was born free in 1813 to a Creole family of Color in New Orleans, Louisiana. She along with two others founded the Sisters of the Holy Family in 1842, the second oldest congregation of vowed Black women religious in the United States in continuous existence. Delille and her companions committed themselves to serving the practical and spiritual needs of the poor and neglected, especially free and enslaved Black children.

Father John Augustus Tolton (1854-1897) was born into slavery in Missouri and in 1863 escaped with his family to Illinois. Despite the support of the local bishop, he was rejected by every North American major seminary to which he applied; hence, Tolton studied at the Pontifical Urban University in Rome and was ordained in 1886. Tolton endured considerable racial opposition at his first parish assignment but met with success after his transfer to the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange, OSP (Oblate Sisters of Providence), was born about 1789 in Saint-Domingue (now known as Haiti) but during the Haitian Revolution she and her parents escaped to Cuba; as an adult, she immigrated to the United States. Recognizing the need for education of African American children in Baltimore, she first opened her home for that purpose. Drawn to religious life, Lange and three companions founded the oldest congregation of vowed Black women religious in continuous existence in the United States in 1829.

Julia Greeley (c.1833/1848-1918), was born into slavery in Missouri and as an adult moved to Denver, Colorado, in 1879. A year later, she became a Catholic and in 1901 joined the Secular Franciscans. Greeley earned her living performing domestic work for wealthy White families in Denver. She gave most of her salary to those in need—famously pulling a red wagon through the streets of Denver late at night bringing food, coal, clothing to all who were impoverished. She is known as Denver's "Angel of Charity."

Sister Thea Bowman, FSPA (Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration) was born in Yazoo City, Mississippi, in 1937. At the age of 9, she became a Catholic; and at 15, entered the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration, La Crosse, Wisconsin. After years of teaching in elementary, college, and graduate schools, Bowman was invited to minister in the Diocese of Jackson, Mississippi, as a consultant for intercultural awareness. This appointment took her not only around the diocese and the state, but also around the country and the globe. Despite grave illness, she continued to encourage Black Catholics to bring their "fully functioning" selves, that is their history and culture and music, to the Catholic Church.

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes.

Archbishop Vigneron's statement on Pope Francis' Global Rules for Reporting Abuse

A new papal law requiring priests and religious to report sexual abuse and misconduct provides "clear directives for universal accountability in response to the horrors of clergy sexual abuse," Archbishop Vigneron has told Detroit Catholic. The law provides whistleblower protections for anyone making a report and requires all dioceses to have a system in place to receive the claims confidentially. And it outlines internal procedures for conducting preliminary investigations when the accused is a bishop, cardinal or religious superior. "I am deeply sorry to all those who have been injured and are enduring a lifetime of physical, emotional and spiritual suffering because of perverse actions by those in authority," the archbishop said. "No one is above civil law, and importantly, no one is above God's law." Pope Francis announced the new norms. The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others directly to law enforcement – no matter when the abuse occurred. The Michigan Attorney General's Office has established a toll-free reporting hotline at (844- 324-3374), Monday through Friday, 8 am to 5pm. (aginvestigations@michigan.gov). Individuals also may contact their local police department. For complaints involving priests, deacons, religious, or laity, individuals are welcomed to contact the Archdiocese of Detroit's Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or vac@aod.org.
