The VIGIL

Sunday March 19, 2023 (A Cycle)

Fourth Sunday of Lent

Praised be Jesus Christ! The preface today refers to Jesus taking us from darkness to the light of faith. The man born blind sees again and Jesus opens us up to the light of truth through our celebration of the Eucharist this Sunday. How? By His miraculous power working through those who will believe. If our hearts are sluggish, we need to stir them to faith so that we can receive the vision and the light that Jesus wants to give us.

(The services at Nativity and at St. Augustine/St. Monica parishes are in brackets)

Thank you for your prayers these past weeks. I gave some talks at a gathering of seminary faculty for a few days two weeks ago. Last week was dedicated to helping out at Sacred Heart and St. Elizabeth.

Thank you to all of our parishioners who supported the Sacred Heart and St. Elizabeth parishioners last week. It was nice to see so many of us at the services for Father Thomas. Eternal Rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Please see the list of bible studies and faith sharing groups in the bulletin.

*With a prayer,
Father Dan*

NATIVITY OF OUR LORD EASTER PROJECT

We will be passing out Easter baskets and Easter bags again this year to children in church on Easter Sunday and the pantry families. If you would like to donate to the project, we are in need of chocolate bunnies, sidewalk chalk, jump ropes, items for teens, toothbrushes, toothpaste, and individually wrapped candy, cookies, chips, fruit snacks etc....basically items you would put in a basket for a family member.

If you would like to fill a basket or bag on your own, or donate to the project, please bring it to church by April 2nd. Thank you for your support of this project.*

NOTE: We have removed the signs for social distancing on the south side of church (choir side). The north side of church is still reserved for those who want to continue social distancing. However, everyone will continue to wear masks in the church.

Nativity Pantry News... This week we need Peanut Butter, Spaghetti Sauce and Spaghetti Noodles or other pastas.. Again, thank you never seems to be enough, but THANK YOU!

Sunday Community Dinners... As one of our most important ministries to our members, neighbors, we have been blessed to have many sponsors, but as with most ministries, we are in need of more. If you and your group would like to learn more about sponsoring a meal or if you're ready to sign up, please call or email Georgia Kingsley at 586-206-2202, gfk111@aol.com.

STEWARDSHIP MINUTE:Heartfelt Stewardship

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart." 1 Samuel 16:7

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into the hearts of his Stewards to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent and treasure here on earth.

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes.

Archbishop Vigneron's statement on Pope Francis' Global Rules for Reporting Abuse

A new papal law requiring priests and religious to report sexual abuse and misconduct provides "clear directives for universal accountability in response to the horrors of clergy sexual abuse," Archbishop Vigneron has told Detroit Catholic. The law provides whistleblower protections for anyone making a report and requires all dioceses to have a system in place to receive the claims confidentially. And it outlines internal procedures for conducting preliminary investigations when the accused is a bishop, cardinal or religious superior. "I am deeply sorry to all those who have been injured and are enduring a lifetime of physical, emotional and spiritual suffering because of perverse actions by those in authority," the archbishop said. "No one is above civil law, and importantly, no one is above God's law." Pope Francis announced the new norms. The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others directly to law enforcement – no matter when the abuse occurred. The Michigan Attorney General's Office has established a toll-free reporting hotline at (844- 324-3374, Monday through Friday, 8 am to 5pm. aginvestigations@michigan.gov). Individuals also may contact their local police department. For complaints involving priests, deacons, religious, or laity, individuals are welcomed to contact the Archdiocese of Detroit's Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or vac@aod.org.
