Exodus 17: 3-7 (Water From Rock)

Psalm 95: 1-2, 6-7, 8-9 (The Lord Our Rock)

Romans 5: 1-2, 5-8 (God's Love for Us)

> John 4: 42, 15 (Living Water)

John 4: 5-4 (Samaritan Woman)

Good Morning, Parish Family!

After telling us about the temptations we would face in the desert of Lent and showing us the glory to which we are called last week, Jesus brings us back to earth and calls us to repentance today, to turn from selfishness to service.

Mass. This week, we will again have Mass on Fridays at 11 AM. If you'd like to come, and would like to bring some snacks/desserts/healthy food to share, please do so. We'll gather in the back of church after Mass. Other weekday Masses in our family of parishes: Tuesday at Sacred Heart at 5 PM; Wednesday at St. Augustine/St. Monica at 9 AM; Thursdays at St. Charles at 11 AM.

Rosary. Let's plan on praying the rosary on Saturday, April 2nd at 4 PM. You'll be sent an invitation. Let's keep the poor people of Ukraine in our prayers, in whatever way we can pray these days. Donations for Ukraine. Thanks to everyone who was able to contribute to the second collection. $1,460.00 was collected.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. We will also have penance services next Saturday, March 26th here at our parish at 3:30 PM. We'll have a second penance service on Friday, April 1st, along with the Stations of the Cross at St. Augustine/St. Monica at 6 PM.

The house of the Lord. Thanks to Rhonda and Paul who are coordinating all the planning, communicating and follow through of the projects in the church and rectory. Among the projects: FINISHING UP THE CHURCH BASEMENT. Great progress was made this past week. The roof of the rectory was repaired and the roof of the garage is in the works. Once the warmer weather returns, we'll tackle repairing, repainting the rectory trim and windows.

The true temple. Our beautiful church is the house of the Lord, but since Pentecost, the members of the Church are the true temple of the Lord. I'm looking forward to inviting more of the people who live in our neighborhoods to worship with us, and to have their kids take part in the Vacation Bible School. We need to do this together.

Being our brother and sister's keeper. One of the ways we serve our sisters and brothers is by responsibly addressing blight and the selling of drugs in our parish boundaries. We can do the first by simply driving around, and seeing where things have been dumped, and calling the city (Omsbudman contact, 313-224-6000. We can do the second by seeing what we see and making anonymous tips to Crime Stoppers (1-800-SPEAK UP). Our beautiful church is the center of our lives, but not the boundary of our responsibility and care. If you would like to get involved in this, please let me know.

Grateful to Father Bob for being with us this week. I'll be around before Mass, if anyone wants to talk.

With a prayer, Fr. Dan

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes again in glory.

Archbishop Vigneron's statement on Pope Francis' Global Rules for Reporting Abuse:

A new papal law requiring priests and religious to report sexual abuse and misconduct provides "clear directives for universal accountability in response to the horrors of clergy sexual abuse," Archbishop Vigneron has told Detroit Catholic. The law provides whistleblower protections for anyone making a report and requires all dioceses to have a system in place to receive the claims confidentially. And it outlines internal procedures for conducting preliminary investigations when the accused is a bishop, cardinal or religious superior. "I am deeply sorry to all those who have been injured and are enduring a lifetime of physical, emotional and spiritual suffering because of perverse actions by those in authority," the archbishop said. "No one is above civil law, and importantly, no one is above God's law." Pope Francis announced the new norms. See detroitcatholic.com to learn more. Individuals with knowledge of sexual abuse by clergy or church representatives are urged to contact local law enforcement and the Michigan Attorney General's office. Individuals also may contact the Archdiocese of Detroit by visiting protect.aod.org.

HOLY THURSDAY ADORATION

What:

Eucharistic Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament takes place where the faithful remain in the presence of the Eucharist just as the Disciples kept a vigil with Christ.

When:

Holy Thursday night, April 14, 2022

Time:

7pm - 9pm

Where:

Nativity of Our Lord Church

Who:

All who wish to quietly pray

We have moved the Holy Thursday Adoration to Nativity of Our Lord as we will already be there for the 6pm Mass.

A Meditation

Stewardship Minute: Alive

"...He said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none." (LUKE 13:7)

We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you live Stewardship by generously sharing with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called to develop and nurture our gifts, and return them with increase. Remember, we are called to be generous with all of our gifts; especially the ones that means the most to us.

GET READY TO:

Plant seeds
Freshen your house
Turn your face to the sun
Read outdoors
Enjoy a quiet walk
Greet neighbors with a sincere smile
Appreciate green things
Smell flowers. Literally
Flow with a breeze
Learn something new
See something new
BE something new!

"Spring forward!"

We hear it every year about jumping forward one hour. We shrug about it, groan about it, but eventually give in to it.

YOU forward? Have you considered how you might accelerate a new, growing you into a new growing world, just as the budding flowers rise through the chilly ground to greet a new promise of warmth and sun?

How will you spring forward into a wonderful season of growth and change?

LISTEN: Open Door Policy Podcast Episode 83: Eileen Newell

Eileen Newell joins hosts Emily Mentock and Fr. Patrick Gonyeau in this discussion of Eileen's walk with the Lord. Her upbringing, the witness of her parents' faith, and a trip to El Salvador helped her answer the big questions of life that she encountered in college. These days, serving on the Catholic Schools Council and her involvement with Family of Parishes prove to be experiences of God at work through her. Eileen's love of St. Patrick shows as she closes the episode with a powerful Irish prayer.

Doctors told Nora Mies' parents her seizures as a newborn meant she wouldn't live a normal life; then, they prayed to Blessed Solanus Casey. Today, Nora is a healthy, thriving girl. She has just turned 10 years old, and there are no repercussions from what happened to her at birth. The Mies talk about their renewed devotion to Blessed Solanus Casey, to whose intercession they attribute Nora's healing. Nora is enthusiastic about her connection to Fr. Solanus, and the family talks about the story often.

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others directly to law enforcement – no matter when the abuse occurred.

Individuals may also contact the Archdiocese of Detroit. We place no deadlines or time limits on those who wish to come forward for help; be it five, 15, or 50 years later, our diocese accepts and responds to all reports.

The Archdiocese of Detroit reports every complaint it receives, regardless of its source or the date of the alleged activity, to civil authorities. No complaints are held back, pre-screened or disregarded. This is done in accordance with voluntary agreements signed in the spring of 2002 by the archdiocese and prosecutors from all six counties within its boundaries. As a result of the agreements, the archdiocese shared case files of priests accused of sexual misconduct in previous years and committed to turning over all complaints in the future.

How to Report Sexual Abuse

Emergencies

If you suspect someone is in immediate danger, call 911

Law enforcement

Individuals who suspect clergy sexual abuse of children or vulnerable adults are encouraged to contact the Michigan Attorney General's Office by calling its toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 (Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) or by emailing aginvestigations@michigan.gov. Individuals also may contact their local police department.

Mandated reporting

Mandated reporters in Michigan must make an immediate verbal report to the CPS Centralized Intake for Abuse & Neglect at (855) 444-3911, followed by a written report within 72 hours. Reports also can be made online. (See below for more information on mandated reporters.)

Archdiocese of Detroit

The Archdiocese of Detroit's Victim Assistance Coordinator, Tony Latarski, can be reached at (313) 237-6060 or toll-free at (866) 343-8055. Individuals also may email vac@aod.org. Mr. Latarski has an extensive background in law enforcement and works to receive and respond to all complaints. All calls and messages regarding complaints of sexual abuse will be returned in a timely manner. Callers will be asked to provide their name and telephone number.

This contact information is shared as part of an effort by the archdiocese to protect children, young people and other vulnerable people in our schools, parishes and ministries. They are for reporting suspected sexual misconduct or child abuse within archdiocesan institutions and ministries only.

More information about the reporting process from Detroit Catholic: For archdiocese's victim assistance coordinator, helping survivors is a ministry of compassion.

Please note that this article references Mr. Latarski's predecessor, who retired after serving for many years in the role of Victim Assistance Coordinator for the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Reporting a bishop

The Catholic Bishop Abuse Reporting Service (CBAR) has been established to receive reports of sexual abuse and related misconduct by bishops and to relay those reports to proper Church authorities for investigation. To make a report, visit ReportBishopAbuse.org or phone (800) 276-1562. When a report includes a crime, such as the sexual abuse of a minor, it will also be reported to civil authorities. Otherwise, reports will be kept confidential.

Reports of sexual misconduct by other Church personnel — priests, deacons, laypersons — should be reported-in using the means described in the above sections.
