The VIGIL

Sunday April 8 and April 9, 2023 (A Cycle)

EASTER VIGIL and EASTER SUNDAY

Praised be Jesus Christ! Jesus Christ is Risen Today! Happy Easter! No matter how we spent Lent, the Risen Lord calls us to new life in Him today. Let's put off the old ways of the world and allow the Spirit of God to make us new. How? By, one day at a time, trusting God and listening for Jesus' direction in our minds and hearts.

(The services at Nativity and at St. Augustine/St. Monica parishes are in brackets)

Thank you to the members of the parish staff who worked hard to plan and prepare for the Holy Week liturgies. The parish office will be closed this week to give staff members time to be with their families. We will be checking phones.

How to stay in Easter joy: St. Paul gives three pithy pieces of advice in Hebrews 10: 23-25

1. “Hold resolutely to the hope we profess.”
2. “Consider how to spur one another on to love and good deeds.”
3. “Do not absent yourself from the assembly.”

Let's cover those words with faith this Easter week.

St. Francis of Assisi “All I want to know is Christ and the power flowing from His Resurrection!”

St. John Paul II “We are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song!” — St. John Paul II, 1986

*With a prayer,
Father Dan*

Nativity Pantry Update... We are grateful for your continued support of the pantry. Your weekly donations make a difference. This week we need individual bags of chips, crackers and cookies. Again, thank you never seems to be enough, but THANK YOU!

Sunday Community Dinners... As one of our most important ministries to our members, neighbors, we have been blessed to have many sponsors, but as with most ministries, we are in need of more. If you and your group would like to learn more about sponsoring a meal or if you're ready to sign up, please call or email Georgia Kingsley at 586-206-2202, gfk111@aol.com.

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes.

Archbishop Vigneron's statement on Pope Francis' Global Rules for Reporting Abuse

A new papal law requiring priests and religious to report sexual abuse and misconduct provides "clear directives for universal accountability in response to the horrors of clergy sexual abuse," Archbishop Vigneron has told Detroit Catholic. The law provides whistleblower protections for anyone making a report and requires all dioceses to have a system in place to receive the claims confidentially. And it outlines internal procedures for conducting preliminary investigations when the accused is a bishop, cardinal or religious superior. "I am deeply sorry to all those who have been injured and are enduring a lifetime of physical, emotional and spiritual suffering because of perverse actions by those in authority," the archbishop said. "No one is above civil law, and importantly, no one is above God's law." Pope Francis announced the new norms. The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others directly to law enforcement – no matter when the abuse occurred. The Michigan Attorney General's Office has established a toll-free reporting hotline at (844- 324-3374, Monday through Friday, 8 am to 5pm. aginvestigations@michigan.gov). Individuals also may contact their local police department. For complaints involving priests, deacons, religious, or laity, individuals are welcomed to contact the Archdiocese of Detroit's Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or vac@aod.org.
