Pastor's Pen

He Is Risen! Alleluia!

It is with great joy that we welcome two young men to the Easter Sacraments at our Vigil. We are delighted to celebrate the baptism of Anthony Griggs as he plunges into the waters of new life. Anthony is a young man from Nativity and has worked hard in preparing for this special day. We are so grateful to have you with us, Anthony. Our other young man is Jacob (Jake) Bottoms. Jake is a student at MSU and decided last year that he wanted to receive his Confirmation and become stronger in his Catholic faith. Jake, thanks for your witness of faith. We will be praying for both of you on this Easter Night. Please know we surround you with our love and support.

On Easter Sunday, we will celebrate two baptisms. We will welcome into the church, Richard Ezra Preuss. He is the son of Richard and D'Zarea Preuss (and the nephew of Fr. David Preuss). Richard, your birth and baptism give us great joy today. Our hope is that the faith we pass on to you will not just be words but that you will see our faith alive in the way we live as a community of Christ. Please know that we are so happy to have you with us on this journey of faith.

Our other child heading for the waters of baptism is Za'Khari Davis. Za'Khari is the son of Tori Phillips and the great nephew of Donna King. We have seen Za'Khari participate in the liturgical praise dancers. Za'Khari is full of life and joy and we are blessed to have him and his family in our midst.

Anthony, Jake, Richard and Za'Khari, thank you for giving us all new hope as we celebrate this great feast of Easter! Have a wonderful and Blessed Easter.

Our offices will be closed Easter Week to give our volunteer staff a needed rest. I will be around this week, but we will not have Wednesday Mass as I have a funeral at Nativity that day. Have a great week.

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes again in glory.

Easter Monday, April 22nd is the 49th celebration of Earth Day

PRAYER FOR EARTH DAY

Lord of all Creation, Maker of Heaven and Earth, Good Provider, today we come before you in grief, in shame, to lament the loss of beautiful creatures. We grieve the more than one-in-four flowering plants, the one-in-five mammals, the nearly one-in-three amphibians, and the one-in-eight birds that are vulnerable to being wiped out completely. We acknowledge that we play a part in this dying by our carelessness, ignorance, and indifference. Forgive us our part in the death of healthy ecosystems and the resulting extinction of your creatures.

In this Easter season, please refresh our love for all you have made. Renew our resolve to advocate, fight, nurture and defend our fellow creatures. Thank you for those who care for Earth - the gardeners, the activists, the scientists, the zoologists - sustain them and protect their hearts as they strive and grieve. We thank you for the magnificent world which you have bestowed upon us. We thank you that you can do more than all we ask or imagine and so we ask for your help - restrain human evil, energize us for service, fill us with courage and hope. May your world ever be very, very good, as you said at the beginning of Creation. Amen.

Stewardship Reflection: Stewards Reflect Light

"He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." (ACTS 10:38)

On this Easter Sunday, open your hearts to receive God's love, mercy and forgiveness. God is love and we are made in His image and likeness. Let our lives through Stewardship reflect His light to others. Pray for guidance on how to live your life and give thanks for all that He has given you.

Unleash the Gospel News: New Website

Do you feel God calling you to go deeper? To encounter Jesus and let your heart be captured by him? To be in relationship with Jesus and alignment with his will the central guiding principle of every aspect of your life?

The new UnleashTheGospel.org website provides inspiration and resources to encounter Jesus anew, grow daily as his disciple, and give witness to the power of his mercy. Read stories from people like you — striving to live as joyful missionary disciples — and be encouraged to follow in Jesus' footsteps and share the Gospel.

Visit UnleashtheGospel.org and follow us on social media: @UTGDetroit on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.

Making a Report of Sexual Abuse

To inform the Archdiocese of Detroit regarding the sexual abuse of minors by priests, deacons and other Church personnel and/or to speak to the Victim Assistance Coordinator contact: (866) 343-8055. A caller will be requested to provide his or her name and telephone number. All calls regarding complaints of sexual abuse will be returned in a timely manner. This toll-free number has been established as part of an effort by the Detroit archdiocese to protect children, young people and other vulnerable people in our schools, parishes and ministries. This line is for reporting suspected sexual misconduct or child abuse within archdiocesan institutions and ministries only. Persons with such complaints are also encouraged to directly contact law enforcement authorities. The Archdiocese of Detroit stands with the brave survivors who seek to bring the crime of child sexual abuse by clergy and other Church representatives into the light, where those who sinned are confronted and those who were harmed can find healing. To those harmed by the actions and inaction of Church leaders: It is inexcusable, and we are sorry. In an effort to consolidate our resources and respond to the faithful's questions about clergy sexual abuse, the Archdiocese of Detroit has created a new "mini" website at protect.aod.org. This site highlights information about reporting abuse, victim assistance, investigations, training for clergy and lay employees and volunteers, and provides additional resources, including messages from Archbishop Vigneron. Our goal is to make this important information – already available on aod.org – more visible, transparent and clear.
