A reflection on today's gospel as Brother Ray is away:

The actions that follow words of forgiveness are as important to restoring hurt relationships as the words themselves. In the dialogue between Jesus and Simon Peter, we see Jesus healing a broken relationship in word and action as he entrusts to Peter leadership of the Church. The actions that follow words of forgiveness are as important to restoring hurt relationships as the words themselves.

When we have hurt another, even after we have asked for and received forgiveness, there is often a period of time when we are more careful about what we say and how we act around the person we have hurt. Even if we have heard words of forgiveness, it takes time for that forgiveness to feel real. Think about a situation and a relationship in which this has happened to you. Think about what happened to let you know that the hurt between you had really and truly been forgiven.

In today's Gospel, in the dialogue between Jesus and Peter, we hear how the relationship broken by Peter's denial of Jesus is healed.

In our Baptism, we were also entrusted with a mission to love and serve others in Jesus' name. Like Peter, we sin and turn away from Jesus and the mission he gives us. In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we are forgiven. Our relationship with Jesus is healed and restored so that we can again be disciples of Jesus, sent to be people who love and serve others as Jesus did.

Remember the words of the Our Father prayer that say, "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive others". As we say this prayer today, try to really hear and mean those words.

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes again in glory.

Black Catholic Ministry

"Taking a Knee: A Catholic, Intercultural Perspective," the third of four talks in the Office for Black Catholic Ministry's "Disciples on a Mission 2019" speaker series, will be held at Detroit's Corpus Christi Parish on Saturday, May 11.

The series focuses on religious issues touching the experience of Black Catholics in Detroit and Christ's call to bring the power of the Gospel into the city. Its goal is to rally Black Catholics from Detroit parishes around the call of Archbishop Vigneron to be missionary disciples in the African American community.

The final talk, "Unleashing the Gospel in Our Neighborhoods," will be held at Sacred Heart Major Seminary on September 14. Your CSA gifts allow our local Church to minister to Black Catholics and predominantly African American parishes through the Office for Black Catholic Ministry. For more information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, please go to aod.org.

Stewardship Reflection: Stewards Love

"Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'" (JOHN 21:17)

All of us are challenged to show our love for Jesus and others. Discern how God is calling you to be his Steward by using your time in prayer, your talent in charitable works and your treasure to assist those who in need. Remember that giving is an act of worship and helps advance the mission of our parish and greater Church.

Unleash the Gospel News: New Website

Do you feel God calling you to go deeper? To encounter Jesus and let your heart be captured by him? To be in relationship with Jesus and alignment with his will the central guiding principle of every aspect of your life?

The new UnleashTheGospel.org website provides inspiration and resources to encounter Jesus anew, grow daily as his disciple, and give witness to the power of his mercy. Read stories from people like you — striving to live as joyful missionary disciples — and be encouraged to follow in Jesus' footsteps and share the Gospel.

Making a Report of Sexual Abuse

To inform the Archdiocese of Detroit regarding the sexual abuse of minors by priests, deacons and other Church personnel and/or to speak to the Victim Assistance Coordinator contact: (866) 343-8055. A caller will be requested to provide his or her name and telephone number. All calls regarding complaints of sexual abuse will be returned in a timely manner. This toll-free number has been established as part of an effort by the Detroit archdiocese to protect children, young people and other vulnerable people in our schools, parishes and ministries. This line is for reporting suspected sexual misconduct or child abuse within archdiocesan institutions and ministries only. Persons with such complaints are also encouraged to directly contact law enforcement authorities. The Archdiocese of Detroit stands with the brave survivors who seek to bring the crime of child sexual abuse by clergy and other Church representatives into the light, where those who sinned are confronted and those who were harmed can find healing. To those harmed by the actions and inaction of Church leaders: It is inexcusable, and we are sorry. In an effort to consolidate our resources and respond to the faithful's questions about clergy sexual abuse, the Archdiocese of Detroit has created a new "mini" website at protect.aod.org. This site highlights information about reporting abuse, victim assistance, investigations, training for clergy and lay employees and volunteers, and provides additional resources, including messages from Archbishop Vigneron. Our goal is to make this important information – already available on aod.org – more visible, transparent and clear.
