Pastor's Pen

Praised be Jesus Christ! Jesus sends the disciples out two by two to invite people into the Kingdom of God. Each week, we are going out inviting people to hear the worship God, hear the Word of God and come to know our community. Please call the parish office if the Lord is moving you to invite people. Or, if it seems the Lord is calling you to pray, please be praying for those we visit. It used to be when we would make home visits, almost everyone had a church home; now, many fewer people have a church. If Jesus and His Church have been good news for you, consider coming out and inviting people (starting again next week).

This weekend, my family is driving and flying back to Detroit from Maryland, Ohio, Texas and Washington. We're having a reunion up in Port Sanilac. It is always an adventure. Hope you have a wonderful Fourth of July.

(The services at Nativity and at St. Augustine/St. Monica parishes are in parentheses)

Evangelization: This week, we will take a break from home visits. Please pray that God call many people from our several neighborhoods to worship at St. Charles. Taking back the night and the day. We'll start up again in a few weeks.

Deacons: This week, Deacon John Wright will begin serving at Nativity and St. Elizabeth parishes. The Archbishop has accepted our request for a deacon at St. Charles; we're working on a start date this fall. Deacon Chris Rabaut serves at St. Augustine/St. Monica. I'm grateful for deacons, particularly for their service with the Sacraments of Baptism and Matrimony, which they can confer and witness.

Mass during the week: Daily Mass is a wonderful way of staying in union with Christ. In our family, Mass is offered on Tuesdays at Sacred Heart at 5 PM, on Wednesdays at St. Augustine/St. Monica, at Nativity on Thursdays at 9 AM, and here each Friday at St. Charles at 11. Holy hours are on Wednesday at 8 AM at St. Augustine/St. Monica, Thursday at Nativity and Friday at our parish. After your coffee, come on over and pray and see if it is a good way to start the day.

With a prayer,
Father Dan

Archbishop Vigneron's statement on Pope Francis' Global Rules for Reporting Abuse:

A new papal law requiring priests and religious to report sexual abuse and misconduct provides "clear directives for universal accountability in response to the horrors of clergy sexual abuse," Archbishop Vigneron has told Detroit Catholic. The law provides whistleblower protections for anyone making a report and requires all dioceses to have a system in place to receive the claims confidentially. And it outlines internal procedures for conducting preliminary investigations when the accused is a bishop, cardinal or religious superior. "I am deeply sorry to all those who have been injured and are enduring a lifetime of physical, emotional and spiritual suffering because of perverse actions by those in authority," the archbishop said. "No one is above civil law, and importantly, no one is above God's law." Pope Francis announced the new norms. See detroitcatholic.com to learn more. Individuals with knowledge of sexual abuse by clergy or church representatives are urged to contact local law enforcement and the Michigan Attorney General's office. Individuals also may contact the Archdiocese of Detroit by visiting protect.aod.org.

Stewardship Minute:

The Work

"He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...' Luke 10:2

As Catholics we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given "charisms" otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God's Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works.

Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say "yes" to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

DID YOU KNOW...that it is illegal to carry a firearm onto any property or facility owned or operated by a church, synagogue, mosque, temple, or other place of worship, unless the presiding official or officials allow concealed weapons?

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes.
