14th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C)

Sunday Food for Your Soul

Want to have your expectations turned upside down? Just give a listen to Luke's Gospel these days. Jesus told one follower not to say goodbye to his family and told another not to attend a funeral. "Let the dead bury the dead," he told him.

And this Sunday, he tells his followers, as they head into the world, to take nothing with them — "no money bag, no sack, no sandals." I'm sending you like lambs among wolves, he says. Throughout this series of Gospel readings, we're being cautioned, again and again: Don't get, just give. Don't save up, but surrender. Don't load up, but let go.

Christ's continuing message here is one of detachment — or, in a popular phrase of the recovery movement: let go and let God.

But wait, there's more. This week we realize that when Jesus sends his followers into the world, they are not being sent empty-handed. They go bearing one simple message, one priceless word: "Peace."

Jesus tells them: "Into whatever household you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.'" Peace.

It is also the first word he will say to them after the Resurrection, when he appears in the upper room. And it is the great message he is asking them — and asking us — to carry into the world.

Carry no sack, no money, no sandals. Carry, instead, peace.

This is where it starts. It is his first word to those who wish to follow Christ. We'll remember that it was also the first word spoken by Pope Leo XIV when he stepped onto the balcony after his election in May — and the first word he chose to transmit on social media just a few days later. Peace.

Are we getting the message? It's worth asking ourselves this week: how well are we spreading that word? Whatever else there may be in the world today, there is very little peace. And that extends far beyond just the absence of war.

They are also the countless conflicts that erupt in our daily lives — between spouses, between parents and children, between neighbors and co-workers.

How often do we offer to people in our lives, with what we say or how we live, "peace"? How often do we make peace our mission and our message?

The writer Anthony de Mello tells the story of a man whose marriage was in trouble. He sought some advice from a spiritual master. The master told him, "You must learn to listen to your wife." The man took the advice to heart and returned several weeks later and said he'd learned to listen to every word his wife was saying. The master smiled and said, "Good. Now go home and listen to every word she isn't saying."

Maybe if more of us did that — not just with our spouses, but with each other — it might be a beginning, a first step, toward making peace a reality. To listen that way means you don't have the last word. In fact, it makes Christ's first word the last word. Peace!

It means living with a kind of humility and attentiveness to one another that Christ asks of us. It is a way of going into the world with nothing — except what really matters.

The detachment that Jesus is demanding isn't just a detachment from things. It is a detachment from ourselves. It is separating from our own pride, our own ego, our own sense of entitlement, our own feeling that we always have to be right.

It is taking with us nothing but what we are — stripped of what we pretend to be, divested of what we own, all that we use to impress people. It is putting that aside and carrying forth just one message, in Christ's name: peace.

Are we willing (as a famous song once put it) to give peace a chance? The day we can live that spirit and give it joyfully to others, we may not have a sack or money or sandals. But we will be wealthy beyond measure. And the world will be, too.

St. Charles Borromeo News and Happenings

June 08, 2025

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Charles Borromeo,

The 2025 Catholic Services Appeal is now underway. I am writing to ask you to reflect on God's many gifts to you and, in a spirit of Christian stewardship, live out our Gospel message theme, Do you love me? Feed my sheep.

Gifts to the CSA help Unleash the Gospel through more than 100 important ministries, programs, and services. No one parish could accomplish all that our local Church does through the annual appeal. Truly, these blessings touch parishes and the lives of thousands of people across the Archdiocese of Detroit each day — including many in our own parish.

Our parish's CSA target for 2025 is $24,337, which our share of supporting CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services.. If we exceed our target, 100 percent of the excess will be returned directly to our parish. This makes CSA the best time to give additional gifts to our parish. We plan to use these funds to complete some repair projects around and in the church and rectory, continue our commitment to feeding our friends and neighbors through the Sunday Dinner program, and help our neighbors who find themselves in need of assistance. If we do not meet the target, the shortfall will be taken from our general fund.

This year, rather than asking people to give more, I am asking more people to give. If all of us at St. Charles contribute, myself included, we will easily exceed our target. I ask that you prayerfully consider a gift of $25 a month for nine months, with an initial payment of $25, for a total pledge of $250.00.

As Christian stewards and people of faith, we are called to accept God's gifts gratefully, nurture them wisely, share them in charity, and give back to God a portion of what we have through our prayer, service, and generosity. It is important that each of us makes an equal sacrifice relative to our means to support the Kingdom of God here on earth.

Please take a moment to review the enclosed CSA brochure that includes examples that illustrate how our annual appeal helps us to focus on the Gospel message theme, Do you love me? Feed my sheep, also the central theme of Archbishop Edward J. Weisenberger's homily during his installation Mass. Then prayerfully consider your pledge to the 2025 CSA. Please send your completed pledge card to the Archdiocese Processing Center in the enclosed pre-addressed envelope. You may also make a gift to our parish campaign online, using your debit or credit card, at GiveCsa.org.

I appreciate your stewardship. God bless you for your generosity!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Chris

Annual St Charles Picnic

Strangers No Longer

Please join the Strangers No Longer group as they lead a “Solemn Procession to ICE”!

Date: Monday July 14th.

Time: 9AM Gathering

Place: The plaza in front of Most Holy Trinity church.
1050 Porter St, Detroit

Additional Information:

We will process in silence (only a drum beat) the three blocks over to the ICE regional office at 985 Michigan Ave. where we will ask for a meeting with the ICE Regional Director for Michigan and Ohio.

This is in response to the expanded ICE activity that is causing such fear among the immigrants of our parishes & cities. Please join us. This will be a peaceful public protest, a witness to what’s going on all around us. It is not politically motivated, it’s morally motivated. It’s not enough to sit @ home, watch the news & shake our heads. This active peaceful witness will give people hope & bring the solidarity we need & the support our immigrant brothers & sisters are desperate for.

As Catholics we are all called to Stewardship. Each of us has been given "charisms" otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God's Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say "yes" to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

Protecting Our Skin: UV Safety Awareness Month

July is UV Safety Awareness Month, a timely reminder to take care of our skin as we enjoy the sunny days of summer. While sunlight provides important vitamin D, too much exposure to ultraviolet (UV) rays can lead to serious health problems, including skin cancer, eye damage, and premature aging of the skin.

It's a common myth that African American skin does not burn or cannot get skin cancer. The truth is that people of all skin tones are at risk. In fact, skin cancer in African Americans is often diagnosed at a later stage, which can make treatment more difficult. Melanin provides some protection, but not enough to skip sunscreen and sun safety.

Whether you're gardening, walking, or attending outdoor services or picnics, be sure to protect yourself. Wear wide-brimmed hats, long sleeves, and sunglasses. Use a broad-spectrum sunscreen with at least SPF 30, and reapply it every two hours. Teach children these habits early, too.

This July, let's care for the beautiful skin God gave us—because healthy habits are a form of praise!

We had over 20 people come out to get their BP checked after mass on June 22 ! Am so happy that more and more folks are becoming more aware of their health and are making BP check ups a priority. Stop by the BP table even if you just have a health question for me . It's all confidential.

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes.
