Sunday Food for Your Soul

Dear Family Parishioners,

Let me offer in this bulletin a reflection about one means to become spiritually focused and united with God, namely, the practice of pure intention.

Pure intention (or right intention) is an intention that is unmixed with human motives; rather, one that is riveted upon the love and honor of God as the end of all life and living. It's ideally the fundamental intention and disposition of our mind and heart with which I do everything. It's as simple as saying throughout one's day, "Lord, may all the human effort of my day be for love and praise of you." It's keeping one's focus, motive, and desire not on self-aggrandizement, but always on the final end, namely, the honor, praise, and glory of God. It's riveted on the ultimate end of human existence, the greater glory of God, which happens to be the very motto of my Jesuit institute.

We can say that pure intention corresponds with living the gospel exhortation to "seek first the kingdom of God" (Mt 6:33). It corresponds with "hallowed be thy name," of the Our Father, or with the doxology of the eucharistic liturgy, "through him, and with him, and in him...all glory and honor is yours." Pure intention is not some strained fixation of the mind, but a basic habit of orienting our daily life and daily efforts toward a spiritual finality. Fundamentally, it's a practice and attitude of mind and heart, honed in us by the Holy Spirit. Such an intention patiently matures within us over time.

Pure intention does not ask that a person always be consciously thinking of God at each moment in the midst of our daily efforts—not to be schizophrenic. Rather, we make a momentary intention before any activity in which we engage, and then apply ourselves to that task with all our attention. It's a daily and continuous intention and prayer that orders, directs and highlights the deepest spiritual energy and aspirations within us. The intention once made, we proceed with the task before us—all to the greater glory of God.

For instance, we ideally assist our spouse, partner, or friend, for the love of God; we care for our children for the glory of God; we engage in our daily work for the praise of God; we prepare meals for our family, run errands, read to our children, enjoy a party, comfort a relative, give alms to the poor, study for a degree, face hardships, work in a garden, go on vacation, etc., all for the glory of God. But what about more common motives and intentions? As one author states: "God-centered intention does not imply the elimination of other intentions, but the integration of all immediate intentions into our ultimate intention."

In summary, the finality of life—the praise, reverence, service, and glory of God—is meant to be the mantra or hymn of all our activities, efforts, and endeavors. As we hear in 1 Corinthians 10:31, "So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God." Amen.

STEWARDSHIP MINUTE

Stewardship Repayment

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." JOHN 3:16

God created us to be in relationship with Him. Sin broke that relationship. Jesus came to earth so that we may reconcile our relationship with God. Following Jesus' example, we can be blessed with a joy-filled life on earth and eternal life in Heaven. This core message is the basis for the Stewardship of our Catholic faith. How do you live this out in your daily life?

Parish Nurse News and Notes-St Charles

September is Prostate Cancer Awareness Month

Did you know that 1 in 8 men will be diagnosed with prostate cancer in their lifetime? September is Prostate Cancer Awareness Month, a time to bring attention to one of the most common cancers among men—and to encourage early detection.

What is Prostate Cancer?

Prostate cancer is a disease where cancer cells form in the tissues of the prostate—a small gland in men that helps produce semen. While it often grows slowly, some forms can be aggressive.

Who is at Risk?

- Men over 50
- African American men
- Men with a family history of prostate cancer

What Can You Do?

- Talk to your doctor about screening, especially if you're over 50 or have risk factors.
- Maintain a healthy lifestyle—exercise regularly, eat a balanced diet, and don't smoke.
- Be aware of symptoms like difficulty urinating, blood in urine or semen, or pain in the back or hips—but remember, many men have no symptoms at all.

Faith and Health Go Hand in Hand

As stewards of the bodies God has given us, we are called to care for our health. Encourage the men in your life—husbands, fathers, brothers, and sons—to speak to their doctor about prostate health. Let us pray for healing, wisdom for doctors, and the courage to take proactive steps for our well-being.

Don't forget to sign up for our upcoming Diabetes Prevention program starting next week on Sunday, September 21, from 1:30 to 2:30 in the church hall (in the classroom). Open to all parishes in our family.

We will also be having Blood Pressure screening on Sept 21 before and after mass.

Blessings,

Mary Catherine Wright RN, Parish Nurse

St. Charles Mission Statement

St. Charles Borromeo, a diverse urban parish of Detroit, is rooted in Christ's Gospel and Catholic tradition. We strive to build a community of faith through education, worship, and evangelization. We are called to carry on Christ's ministry to our brothers and sisters, especially the sick and their families, the elderly, youth, and the disabled. With Mary as our example of unconditional love, we strive to welcome everyone to share joyfully in the peace, love and salvation of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that it is the Holy Spirit who calls and empowers us, who strengthens and renews us, and who gives us the will to continue our mission, until Jesus comes.
